SEWARD MEMORIAL LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

Seward, NE 68434
233 South Fifth Street

FALL Library "Card"

Keep reading and crossing off the squares on your FALL Library "Card." The grid cards must be turned in by October 31 to be included in the random drawing for cash prizes. Meet some new authors and discover books which you may have missed in the past. Add some variety to your reading routine and, if you are lucky, get some extra cash. A new HOLIDAY Library "Card" will be available in November for continued reading challenges.

Make-It Wednesdays

During September and October Seward Memorial Library offered weekly afterschool craft sessions for children in kindergarten through 4th grade via Zoom. October 28th is the last "Make-It Wednesday" this fall. If you would like to view an afternoon session which you missed, they will be available, along with directions, on the library website in November. The supply kits will not be provided anymore, but children can participate by watching the recording and using the any craft materials from around their home.

Eleanor is Still Here!

We have a new copy of the 2020 All Seward Reads Together title waiting for someone to take home. Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine is available to the first person who comes to the library and asks for this novel by Gail Honeyman. It is a good read and could be a gift for someone during this holiday season.

The library will be closed on Wednesday, November 11 to observe Veteran's Day

Online Auction Ends on October 30

The Friends of Seward Library are hoping that library patrons as well as the community will visit their Facebook page @FriendsOfSewardLibrary (or join this link) and look over the variety of décor items waiting to find new homes. Take part in the online bidding or contact the library staff at 402-643-3318 for assistance in placing a bid. The auction ends at noon on October 30. Do not miss out on this opportunity to acquire some interesting and attractive items and also help raise money for the non-profit Friends of Seward Library group.

Zoom Story Time

Only a few sessions left to join Zoom Story Time this fall. The 30-40 minute sessions are led by Wendy Schultz on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. and Thursdays at 4 p.m. The last sessions will be Nov. 4 at 10 a.m. and Nov. 5 at 4 p.m. Sign up now here.

City workers repair the concrete by our North alley entrance and East sidewalk.

Friends of Seward Library Used Book Sale
Extended! Shop now through Nov. 3 at 5 p.m.

Mid-Week Movies

Due to a shortage of new release DVDs the library has decided to delay this program until January. We enjoy sharing quality films with patrons and we hope to return to these entertaining afternoons soon.

Pam is on Leave

There is an empty chair in the staff room. Pam Walz, who has been part of the library staff for 27 years, is currently on medical leave for a serious health condition. The staff misses her daily and asks you to keep her in your thoughts as she undergoes a stem cell transplant. For more information and details on how you can help there is a GoFundMe page and also an account set up at Jones Bank in Seward. We will be grateful when she returns in 2021!

Holiday StoryWalk®

Starting Saturday, November 28, come to Seward Memorial Library to pick up an entry form for the holiday StoryWalk®. Families are invited to travel to businesses around the Court House Square and read a holiday storybook. Included with the posted pages in each window will be a part of a message. Locate the clues and turn in the completed message to the library for entry in a random drawing. StoryWalk® ends on Sunday, Dec. 13. Enjoy a break in your schedule and read, walk and relax with others at no cost.

Holiday Décor for Donations

Seward Memorial Library will be unveiling some additional donated holiday décor in mid-November through December. Holiday items will be displayed on the front circulation counter and can be taken for donations. New items will be added as décor leaves the building. Due to Covid-19 the large annual Décor Days event had to be minimized to keep our patrons safe. Stop by often to see what has been included in the sale. All donations go to Friends of Seward Library.
